• Reminder from Dr. Ou:

- Prosthodontics is the specialized field of dentistry concerned with diagnosing, planning, and executing restorative and cosmetic treatments. A prosthodontist is in essence an architect, who formulates a comprehensive treatment plan and informs the patient as to what is possible. Using the latest technology, we can restore missing or defective teeth with functional, natural looking teeth that boost confidence and enhance the smile.

Furthermore, good oral hygiene is the most important factor to make restorations success and enhance quality of life.
