

Yi-Hsiang Chiu

• Current position:

- Attending Physician, Department of Physical Medicine & Rehabilitation, National Taiwan University Hospital.

• Specialty:

- Neurorehabilitation
- Musculoskeletal Disease
- Cardiopulmonary rehabilitation
- Cancer rehabilitation

•Education:

- MD, School of Medicine, Kaohsiung Medical University.

•Career and certification:

- Resident, Department of Physical Medicine & Rehabilitation, National Taiwan University Hospital.
- Chief Resident, Department of Physical Medicine & Rehabilitation, National Taiwan University Hospital.

•Reminder from Dr. Chiu:

The goals of rehabilitation are to reduce disability following diseases, enhance independent ability and improve quality of life. In addition to stroke, spinal cord injury and other neurological diseases and musculoskeletal diseases, cares to the cardiopulmonary and cancer patients have gradually evolved in recent years. If you have the aforementioned problems, please visit our clinic for further assessment and management.